ORDER

This is a civil rights action filed by a federal prisoner. Therefore, in the event that a limitations issue arises, the plaintiff shall have the benefit of the holding in Houston v. Lack, 487 U.S. 266 (1988) (prisoner's pleading was filed at moment of delivery to prison authorities for forwarding to District Court). Under Local Rule 73.02(B)(2)(c) pretrial proceedings in this action have been automatically referred to the assigned United States Magistrate Judge.

TO THE PLAINTIFF:

The above-captioned case is not in proper form for evaluation and service at this time. If this case is not brought into "proper form" by the date specified in this order, this case may be dismissed for failure to prosecute and failure to comply with an order of this Court under Rule 41 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure (Fed. R. Civ. P.).

Under the General Order (Misc. No. 3:07-5014-JFA) signed on September 18, 2007 the undersigned is giving the plaintiff twenty (20) days from the date this order is entered (plus three days for mail time pursuant to FRCP 6(e)) to:

- 1) Complete and sign the enclosed Financial Certificate. The plaintiff must send the Certificate to his correctional institution's mailroom so that the Federal Bureau of Prisons finance section can put the needed information on the Financial Certificate and return it to the plaintiff. Once the plaintiff has received the Financial Certificate back from the finance section, he must return the Financial Certificate to the Office of the Clerk of Court for the United States District Court for the District of South Carolina.
- 2) Complete and sign the enclosed Application to Proceed Without Prepayment of Fees and Affidavit (Form AO 240).

The plaintiff must place the civil action number listed above, on any document the plaintiff submits to this Court pursuant to this order. In the meantime, no process shall issue until the aforementioned items have been reviewed by the undersigned.

The plaintiff is a pro se litigant. The plaintiff's attention is directed to the following important notice:

You are ordered to always keep the Clerk of Court advised in writing (Post Office Box 10768, Greenville, South Carolina 29603) if your address changes for any reason, so as to assure that orders or other matters that specify deadlines for you to meet will be received by you. If as a result of your failure to comply with this order, you fail to file something you are required to file within a deadline set by a District Judge or a Magistrate Judge, your case may be dismissed for violating this order. Therefore, if you have a change of address before this case is ended, you must comply with this order by immediately advising the Clerk of Court in writing of such change of address and providing the Clerk of Court with the docket numbers of all pending cases you have filed with this court. Your failure to do so will not be excused by the court.

Put this order with your own record of this case so that you will not overlook your duty. If an attorney serves you by mail on behalf of a defendant or a respondent, you also have a duty to notify that attorney if your address is to be changed for mail purposes.

You are, hereby, informed that if your address changes in the future, you must provide your prison or jail address (or your new address if you are released from jail or prison).

Any future filings with this Court must be sent to the address above. All pleadings filed in this case by the plaintiff shall be signed with a handwritten signature using plaintiff's full legal name. Plaintiff shall NOT use the "s/typed name" format used in the Electronic Case Filing (ECF) system. The plaintiff is directed to use letter-sized paper only, to write or type text on one side of a sheet of paper only and not to write or type on both sides of any sheet of paper.¹ The plaintiff is further instructed not to write to the edge of the paper, but to maintain one-inch margins on the top, bottom, and sides of each paper submitted.

Plaintiff will strictly comply with requirements for "short and plain" statements of claims and defenses in all pleadings under Rule 8 Federal Rules of Civil Procedure (Fed.

¹Pursuant to Section 205 of the E-Government Act of 2002, Pub. L. 107-347, December 17, 2002, 111 Stat. 2899, this court has implemented Case Management-Electronic Case Filing (CM-ECF). For this purpose, pro se filings are scanned to create electronic docket records. Therefore, the use of only one side of a sheet of paper is required. Also, double-sided pages are difficult to "scan" into the CM-ECF system.

R. Civ. P.) as well as the requirements for “concise summary,” “concise statement” and “brevity” set forth in Local Civil Rule 7.05 of the United States District Court for the District of South Carolina.

TO THE CLERK OF COURT:

The Office of the Clerk of Court shall not enter any change of address submitted by the plaintiff which directs that mail be sent to a person other than the plaintiff unless that person is an attorney admitted to practice before this court who has entered a formal appearance.

The Clerk of Court shall mail a copy of this order and the “proper form” documents to the plaintiff.

If the plaintiff fails to provide to the Clerk of Court, the items listed above, within the period prescribed in this order, the Office of the Clerk of Court shall forward the file in the above-captioned case to the United States District Judge or Senior United States District Judge assigned to this case for a final order of dismissal.² If, however, the plaintiff provides this Court with the items listed above, the Office of the Clerk of Court should forward the file to the Magistrate Judge to determine if service of process should be authorized.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

WARNING TO PRO SE LITIGANTS

All Documents That You File with the Court Will Be Available to the Public on the Internet Through Pacer (Public Access to Court Electronic Records) and the Court's Electronic Case Filing System.

YOU ARE RESPONSIBLE FOR PROTECTING YOUR IDENTITY FROM POSSIBLE THEFT. YOU MUST REMOVE CERTAIN PERSONAL IDENTIFYING INFORMATION FROM ALL DOCUMENTS BEFORE YOU SUBMIT THE DOCUMENTS TO THE COURT FOR FILING. IT IS NOT THE COURT'S RESPONSIBILITY TO REMOVE PERSONAL IDENTIFYING INFORMATION FROM YOUR DOCUMENTS BEFORE THEY ARE ELECTRONICALLY DOCKETED.

Under the Privacy Policy of the Judicial Conference of the United States, a litigant, whether represented by counsel or appearing pro se, must not put certain types of the litigant's (or any other person's) personal identifying information in documents submitted for filing to any United States District Court. This rule applies to ALL documents submitted for filing, including pleadings, exhibits to pleadings, discovery responses, and any other document submitted by any party for filing. If the litigant finds it necessary to submit a document containing personal identifying information, the litigant must "black out" or redact the personal identifying information prior to submitting the document to the Office of the Clerk of Court for filing.

1. Types of personal information that MUST be removed or redacted from documents before filing:

(a) Social Security numbers. If an individual's social security number must be included in a pleading, only the last four digits of that number shall be used.

(b) Names of Minor Children. If the involvement of a minor child must be mentioned, only the initials of that child shall be used.

(c) Dates of Birth. If an individual's date of birth must be included in a pleading, only the year shall be used.

(d) Financial Account Numbers. If financial account numbers are relevant, only the last four digits of these numbers shall be used.

(e) Juror Information. If a document containing identifying information about a juror or potential juror must be filed (e.g., verdict form or indictment), all personal information identifying a juror or potential juror must be redacted.

2. Other sensitive personal information of the litigant (or any other person) that should be considered for possible removal or redaction:

Any personal identifying number, including a driver's license number; medical records; employment history; individual financial information; proprietary or trade secret information; information regarding an individual's cooperation with the government; information regarding the victim of any criminal activity; national security information; and/or sensitive security information described in 49 U.S.C. § 114(s).
